PRICES REDUCED!

Desirous of contributing by every means in our power to promote the election of FREMONT and thus check the deadening advance of SLAVERY, and believing that the wide circulation of good newspapers will powerfully aid in this result, we offer the Sentinel, from the 16th of August to the 1st of December next, at the following low PRICES:

Daily,.....$1,50 per copy.
Tri-Weekly ..... 75 cts. "
Weekly ..... 30 " "

We will send FOUR copies of the Weekly to one address for ONE DOLLAR. Friends of the good cause! We invoke your aid in swelling the circulation of the Sentinel; if you think, with us, that it may be instrumental in ensuring the free Electoral Votes of Wisconsin to FREEDOM and FREMONT.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 5th.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

The steamer Baltic was announced yesterday afternoon, but none of her news reached us, owing to the storm.

We conclude to-day Mr. FABER'S letter from Palestine.

We invite particular attention to two articles in this morning's paper, one on "The True Issue," the other giving a letter from Mr. BROWN of Mississippi, showing Mr. BUCHANAN'S true position.

The Republicans of Beloit are making preparations for a grand rally at that place on the 4th of September next.

We have a brief summing up of the Republican victory in our sister State, Iowa. Wisconsin will do likewise.

Under our commercial head will be found the full particulars of an important movement made by the grain dealers in this market, for the mutual benefit of the farmers and themselves. All good farmers will rejoice to see the plan adhered to.

Fremont in California.

The nomination of Fremont and Dayton gives the greatest satisfaction in California. On the evening of July 19th a mass meeting was held in San Francisco, at which O. L. Shafter presided, and Judge Tracy and J. A. Nunes, Esq., both formerly Democrats, made stirring speeches in favor of the Republican ticket. The miserable shifting do-nothing policy of the Cincinnati Convention in regard to the Pacific Railroad was exposed, and the people congratulated on the bold stand taken by the Republicans, and in the choice of the favorite of California for their candidate. A correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune writes:

For the first time since I came here in 1849, I see the light dawning for California. The nomination of Fremont is the best which could have been made for our State. It will, and does already, cut the long dominant party in two. I think it about an even chance for the Electoral Vote, though some of our friends figure up 10,000 majority for Fremont. But they are sanguine men, I am not. I am only sure that, if we could carry this State for any man standing on the Republican platform, we can carry it for Fremont.

THE KANSAS LEGISLATURE.—The Kansas Tribune says that the Free State Legislature, dispersed by Col. Sumner, is by no means dissolved, but that the members went to their homes in the expectation of being called together, and that they will be so called in a short time. Further, he Tribune says:

"When the Representatives of the people meet again, it will be with their constituents around them prepared to defend them in any emergency and enforce their enactments. The tyrants will find that it is something besides boy's play, when they again attempt to send home the Representative of a Free People.

"DOUGHFACES."—The old Hunkers and their allies of various stripes do not like the application of the term "doughfaces" to themselves.—Daniel Webster, who is good authority for them on some things now-a-days, once said in reference to a certain class of politicians—and they do not belong to our side:

"The term doughface was not sufficiently reproachful; they have dough heads and dough hearts, and dough souls; they were ALL dough, and the coarsest potter would mould them at his pleasure into vessels of honor or dishonor—especially dishonor.

THOSE NINE CHEERS.—The correspondent of the Galena Courier, in giving account of the Buchanan Sale here, concludes his letter by saying:

"The meeting adjourned for two weeks, with nine hearty cheers for Buchanan and Breckenridge."

A friend who was present says that nine persons joined in one faint cheer, six in a second, and five in a third, after which they mostly retired. He also says that of the 83 persons present at the close of the meeting, exclusive of the Mineral Point Missionaries, 50 were well known Republicans.—Platteville American.

The True Issue.

We publish below an article from the Richmond (Va.) Enquirer, stating in calm language, but in bold and unmistakeable terms, its view of the issue to be decided in the coming election. It deserves a careful examination, since on one side or the other of this issue will every vote be cast in November next. There is no means of avoiding it. The Republicans and the freedom-loving Democracy do not desire to avoid it; but their opponents do desire to avoid it. They are ready to talk about Col. Fremont's marriage, to defame his character, to pour upon him personally the foulest calumnies, but they will not touch the issue. To be sure, now and then they find an overzealous recent convert like Mr. ORTON, who is willing to take up the defence of the doctrine of slavery extension, and stultify all his past record on the subject, and falsify history for his new friends; but generally they avoid the question and take to abusing Fremont.

The issue must be understood by the people, and this article from the Enquirer gives it in brief but comprehensive form.

VOTERS OF WISCONSIN! The Philadelphia Convention, upon whose platform FAYSOTT and DAYTON stand, declared absolutely against the extension of Slavery into the National Territory.—The Cincinnati Platform, with which BUCHANAN and BRECKENRIDGE are identified, proposes to admit Slavery into the National Territory, and the candidates and speakers of the Sham Democracy follow the doctrines and obey the dictates of the Richmond Enquirer. For which of the candidates will you vote? Read and reflect upon the article below. If you are convinced that "African Slavery is a moral, religious, natural, and "necessary institution of Society," then vote for BUCHANAN OR FILLMORE,—for it amounts to the same thing. But if "Slavery be not a legitimate, useful, moral, and expedient institution," can you "without reproof of conscience, and the blush of shame," refuse to vote for the Republican candidate, JOHN C. FREMONT?—

THE TRUE ISSUE.—The Democrats of the South in the present campaign cannot rely upon the old grounds of defence and excuse for Slavery; for they seek not merely to retain it where it is, but to extend it into regions where it is unknown.—Much less can they rely on the mere constitutional guarantees of slavery, for such reliance is pregnant with the admission that Slavery is WRONG, and but for the Constitution should be abolished. This constitutional argument for Slavery, standing alone, fully justifies the Abolitionists. They are clearly right, if Slavery be morally wrong, for to get rid of it under the Constitution, or by amending the Constitution, is confessedly impracticable.

In truth, the Constitution cannot help Slavery, if it be a violation of the laws of God and morality. In that case, the constitution should be changed, or the Free States should secede, rather than continue to guaranty what they consider immoral and profane. The Constitution cannot help Slavery for another reason. That institution, extending through fifteen States, and intermarried with the interests, the feelings, and the very existence of many millions of men, is much stronger than the Constitution. It would be far easier to change or violate the Constitution, than to abolish Slavery. Besides, Slavery is older than the Constitution, existed before it, and is independently of it. We derive no right to our slaves from it, and weaken our cause by seeming to rely on it.

For all it tells us aught to show that the negro is most happy and best situated in the condition of Slavery. If we stop there, we weaken our cause by the very argument intended to advance it: for we propose to introduce into new territory, human beings whom we assert to be unfit for liberty, self-government, and equal association with other men. We must go a step further. We must show that African Slavery is a moral, religious, natural, and probably, in the general, a necessary institution of society. This is the only line of argument that will enable southern Democrats to maintain the doctrines of state equality and slavery extension.

For if Slavery be not a legitimate, useful, moral, and expedient institution, we cannot, without reproof of conscience and the blush of shame, seek to extend it, or assert our equality with those States having no such institutions.

Northern Democrats need not go thus far.—They do not seek to extend Slavery, but only agree to its extension, as a matter of right on our part. They may prefer their own social system to ours. It is best that they should. Our friends are conservative at home, and conservatives of the Union—conservatives of religion, of marriage, of property, of State institutions, and of Federal institutions. But whilst they prefer their own social system, they will have to admit in this canvass that ours is also rightful and legitimate, and sanctioned alike by the opinions and usages of mankind, and by the authority and express injunctions of Scripture. They cannot consistently maintain that Slavery is immoral, inexpedient, and profane, and yet continue to submit to its extension.

We know that we utter bold truths. But the time has now arrived when their utterance can be no longer postponed. The true issue should stand out so boldly and clearly that none may mistake it.

The German Vote.

The New York Staats Demokrat, a German paper, thus alludes to the triumphant German vote by which Mr. BLAIR has just been elected to Congress from the St. Louis District, Missouri:

LOOK AT MISSOURI.—Germans in the free states who lend themselves to aiding the slavery extensionists must blush when they see their brothers in the Slave States battling against the enemy of freedom. St. Louis, the Metropolis of Missouri, has spoken, and her German population has joined in the cry, which makes the democratic party tremble.

The freesoiler, Blair, who openly condemned the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, and declared for free speech, free labor and free Kansas, is elected to Congress from the St. Louis district. The votes of German citizens aided to achieve the victory.

All honor to the German population of St. Louis. Though residing in a slave state, they nevertheless remain true to freedom.

In IOWA, as in St. Louis, the great majority of the German vote was cast for FREMONT and FREEDOM; and to that vote are we, in a large degree, indebted for the overwhelming victory just achieved there.

Disunion and Secession.

Senator THOMAS, one of BUCHANAN'S chief supporters in the Senate, recently declared that "the election of FREMONT would be the end of the Union and ought to be." The Richmond Whig, a leading Fillmore organ, holds out a different threat to terrify the North. It says:

"The time is not so remote but that it lingers in the memory and traditions of our people, when England was familiarly and endearingly spoken of as home. If the worst comes to the worst—and we cannot find peace, justice of safety with our Yankee brethren—that time may come again."

These Disunionists and Secessionists may make themselves perfectly easy. If they attempt to carry out either project they will find in President FREMONT a second Jackson, who will stop their treason in short order.

The Avalanche in Iowa!

A letter from Burlington, dated the 16th inst. says:

Our returns are all in, but not yet officially counted. Majority on State ticket from 9,000 to 10,000.

CURTIS (Fremont) elected to Congress by 1,100 to 1,500.

DAVIS (Fremont) elected to Congress by 6,000 to 7,000.

Both branches of the Legislature Republican by overwhelming majorities.

This is the most perfect political rout that ever a party encountered.

BUCHANAN and SLAVERY are utterly annihilated in Iowa. A like fate awaits them throughout the entire North-west. FREMONT and FREEDOM are bound to win the day!

U. S. INSURANCE COMPANY—PROMPT PAYMENT.—Mr. H. CHASE, of Chicago, who had an insurance of $9,727 in the U. S. Insurance Company of this city (J. A. HELPENSTEIN, President) on the cargo of the schooner Kate Hayes, makes public the fact that on the next day after he presented his papers and evidence of loss, the Company paid him at once the full amount of his loss. Mr. CHASE rightly thinks that such prompt payment entitles the Company to public confidence and patronage.

THE INDEPENDENCE SAFE.—The last arrivals from the Pacific announce the arrival at Valparaiso, of the U. S. Frigate Independence, about which some apprehensions had been felt.

(CONCLUDED.)

DAMASCUS, April 20th., 1856.

After passing through the dirty and filthy streets of Haifa, whose stench was hardly endurable during the few minutes we were getting through, we struck into the valley of the Kishon, and for two or three hours followed up the brook of the same name. Towards noon we commenced ascending the mountains, which here are smooth and covered with oaks and wild fruit trees, and lunched under a clump of Olive trees on a high dividing ridge of land, commanding one of the most beautiful and lovely landscapes I have ever seen either east or west. This part of Palestine is very unlike that portion around Jerusalem, for here the mountains are covered with verdure and the valleys luxuriate with vegetation.

Nazareth is a city of 5,000 inhabitants, of which more than a fifth are Christians. We put up at the Latin Convent, and received the same hospitable treatment. The Convent is not so rich and flourishing as that of Mt. Carmel. Here we stayed over the Sabbath, and rested from the fatigues of our journey. The city is built on the side of a mountain, and to the South lies a fine view. There are a few good buildings, and the bazaars look more attractive and business-like than any we had seen since leaving Jerusalem. This place is held in great estimation by all Christians, on account of its being the birth-place as well as residence of Joseph the Carpenter, the husband of Mary. One of the Brothers of the Convent took us to the Church, which is a separate building from the Convent, and leading us down some marble steps, in a low and solemn voice informed us that it was the spot where the Annunciation took place. This is in a natural grotto in the rock directly under the great altar. On the supposed place where the Angel Gabriel's foot rested, as he announced the miraculous conception, is a small granite column which is believed to be suspended by a supernatural agency. It is said that during the times of the persecution of the Christians, and the effort to destroy all evidences of Christianity by the Moslems, this pillar was suspended in the air and they could not remove it, and that it has remained so ever since. As I could only see one end which certainly did not touch anything, I cannot vouch for the truth of the story nor deny the existence of the fact. As at the Holy Sepulchre, perfumed oil was burning in golden lamps, roses and flowers were perfuming the air, and beautiful pictures, statuary, rosaries, and other scriptural devices were in the niches around among festoons of rich silk velvet curtains.

From here, accompanied by a young Syrian Christian, we visited the spot where stood the shop of Joseph, the Carpenter, in which he worked. There is only one of the original walls left. This looks very old, and I have no reason to doubt its genuineness. We then visited his house, over which there is built a small chapel.—Here was shown us a large flat stone, which may have been used for domestic purposes. We were told that it was once a table, and around which Christ once sat with his Disciples and partook of refreshments. We were also shown in another part of the town the school house, where it is affirmed that the infant Jesus attended school, and where he first learned the rudiments of his plain education. There are few places so small that possess more interest to the Christian traveller than this. There is, too, something more interesting about the inhabitants, particularly the Christian portion, although in all such places Christianity is nominally the religion, yet many of the Oriental customs and manners are so mixed in, one can hardly tell the difference, except in their dress and intelligence. For instance, on hearing a tremendous noise in the streets on Sabbath morning, we were informed that it was a wedding party on their way to church. Wishing to see everything, we joined the procession and marched along. There were several sets of queer instruments which were played on, but the main music was made by the women with their fingers and mouth. The ceremonies in the Church were half Christian and half Oriental—after which the parties left—the bridegroom taking a short cut home alone—and the bride accompanied by a host of happy looking people, showing every kind of demonstrations of pleasure, sitting on a horse veiled from head to foot, also proceed d through the main public streets to the house of her husband. For thirty days thence forward she speaks to no one, nor is her face permitted to be seen by any man except her lord.

The people, particularly the young of this place, look better than any I have before seen in Palestine. The most noticeable of their features being their eyes, large, soft, lustrous black eyes—probably they may be the descendants of some Italian colony cast out to christianize the place. The dress of females is peculiar—that for the head being a sort of cabach coming out even with the face, the rim of which is a string of circular pieces of metal, perhaps of silver coin, although probably nothing more than tin—a bodice of calico or some other kind of cotton goods and short pants gathered around the ancles, together with a wide sash tied around just above the hips.

After leaving Nazareth, we again passed over hills and through valleys. In the distance loom up the mountains of Gilboa, where Saul was slain. Read chapter I. of the first book of Samuel. Not far from noon we passed through Cana, an Arab village, near which we saw some girls washing clothes. The tubs they used were holes made in a large rock for grinding corn and other grain into flour, and for pounders they used also stones. One of them was quite good looking, and perhaps it was a little enhanced by the ruggine, as the French would say, dress she wore, it being exceedingly short at the top as well as bottom.—One of our young men wanted to pay her rather a doubtful compliment, and touching his hand to his lips threw the kiss at her. At this the little beauty not only looked daggers of indignation but actually spit at him; and during the balance of the journey he offered no more acts of gallantry to the Syrian fair sex.

After riding a few miles farther, we ascended a high prairie-like hill, having no timber upon it, but a rich pasture land, on which flocks of sheep, goats and camels were grazing. From this spot are seen the rich plains of Esdraelon, one of the most fertile sections of all Syria and Palestine, in the centre of which rises the tall and graceful Mount Tabor, its sides appearing at this distance smooth as a meadow and covered with foliage to the very top. From this point, as well as from the summit of Mount Tabor, the sea of Galilee is plainly in sight, deep sunk among the mountains like many of the lakes in Switzerland. Some one writing from that point, says:

"Beyond are Bethulia's mountains of green,
And the desolate hills of the wild Gadarene;
And I pause on the goat-crags of Tabor to see
The gleam of thy waters, O dark Galilee!"

Of the city of Tiberias, situated on the western shore of the Sea of Galilee, perhaps it were well to say nothing, for it is always unpleasant to revive painful recollections. But we were doomed to pass a night there, and I should do the place perhaps injustice unless I named it. The old city contains a population of some 3,000 inhabitants closely huddled together in small, miserable stone houses, with flat roofs, around which are some Roman walls almost as perfect as when made, with large, ponderous gates, which are closed every night. The people consist of Arabs and Jews mostly, but there is a sprinkling of all nations, with a few Christians. As we entered the city the mud and filth of the streets was so deep that in some spots our horses had fairly to wade through. This, together with dead dogs and cats, were festering in a broiling sun in streets that were only twelve feet wide. After winding around and making many turns we came to an old stone building called a hotel, kept by a German Jew, and as it had rained some and looked very likely to rain more, we very wisely concluded to put up there instead of pitching our tents on the outside of the walls. Our quarters were shown us in a sort of a stable-looking room, into which we had to descend from the street.—Here were over six beds made, and no sooner were we in than the fleas and other vermin of the house marched in upon us in myriads. But of the groans, the writhings and turning in bed, the scratching and fighting done that live long night, I have not time to allude to in detail. At all events it was enough to make us all remember Tiberias to the latest days of our lives.

At the hotel there is, as usual in this country, a book for travellers to register their names, and frequently to make remarks. As the landlord cannot speak English, I found that the book was full of curses, deep and long, about the fleas of the place, although I suppose it would be an utter impossibility for him to help it. For my own amusement I copied a few of these remarks, and give samples both in poetry and prose. Here are the first and last verses of one of the former:

"To the fleas of Tiberias—sufferer inquitor—
If after all you still will tease and tear me,
And think that o'er my body that couldst stray,
If I must swear, then, lively sporter, hear me—
By all the dreams I have which thou'rt away,
By the dear I love when thou'rt near me,
I'll seize on thee—I'll smash thee.
* * * * * * *
By thy dark form, in darkness ever plying,
Who hast the genial sheets dost hold thy throne,
And by that bite, which I've no doubt is crying
Enjoys a pungency that's all its own—
A pungency far beyond all pen's portraying,
I'll seize on thee—I'll smash thee."

Another indulges his muse in imitation of one of the early poets after this manner: "A song of ye Tiberian fleas."

"O how ye fleas they troubles me,
They bite me with alarms;
For they used to come by twos and threes,
But here they come by swarms."

Another gives his advice thus:

"N. B.—It will be well for the traveller to procure a few yards of strong cord on his arrival.—By fastening this securely around his body to the bed posts he will maintain his position in bed in spite of the fleas, cockroaches and other animals too numerous to be mentioned." Still another says: "We have no abiding city here."

Before leaving we took a guide, and passing out of the south gate, walked about one mile and visited some old ruins. There is no doubt of the city once having extended that distance south of the present boundary, and by the marble columns and broken statuary we found, it must have been a place of wealth and importance. It is a beautiful site for a city. Still one-half mile further south are a number of hot springs that come out of the mountain, so hot that the water would boil eggs. I believe, even in the time of the Romans, this place was a wealthy and polished city, and much frequented then by the nobility of the land on account of these baths.

The next day we followed the Sea of Galilee northward until we came to its northern curve, where we again ascended the mountains. Why it was dignified by the title of Sea I do not know, for it certainly cannot be to exceed fifteen or twenty miles in length, by an average of from two to three broad. But is a beautiful sheet of water, clear and limpid, for we could see for many rods distant large schools of fish remaining stationary. The mountains, although covered with green, and the shores, although good land, are uncultivated and neglected. The ruins of ancient Capernium we left on our left.

But I must hasten over a country full of interest and adventure, suffice to say we crossed the head waters of the Jordan, stayed one night at the ancient city of Cæsarea Philippi, passed over the high dividing mountains between the Sea and the great plains of Damascus—travelled one day along Mt. Hermon—on its side about half way up, said to be 12,000 feet high, visited the tomb of Nimrod, of whom it said:

"Bold Nimrod first the cruel chase began,
A mighty hunter, and his prey was man."

And at last, on the afternoon of the twelfth day, after leaving Jerusalem, we entered the gates of Damascus. F.

True Democracy for Fremont.

A subscriber, writing from Fond du Lac under date of the 15th instant, thus "defines his position" in the Presidential campaign:

I am a Democrat and always have been. I voted for Franklin Pierce and may God forgive me. I shall vote the Democratic ticket this fall, if I can get to the polls. I do not want you to think by that, that I will vote for "Buck and Breck"; for they are not Democrats. The cause of Freedom and Fremont is all right in Northern Wisconsin. I have just returned from the Pineries, where public sentiment is all one way, i. e. for Fremont. Yours

W.

There are thousands of Democrats, not in Wisconsin only, but all over the North, who stand where our friend W. does. When Hunker Whigs, National Know-Nothings and Doughface Democrats join hands in support of BUCHANAN and SLAVERY, it is high time that liberty-loving men of all parties unite for FREEDOM and FREMONT.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

As an index of the feeling in this town I wish to say that in accordance with their published notice to meet at the School House on the evening of Aug. 8th, five so-called Democrats found their way to the appointed place, but organized no meeting. In order to regain their lost vigor, another attempt was made to meet at the same place on the evening of the 16th inst. Handbills were posted up in public places, and private invitations given through the week, but lo! when the appointed time came not a soul appeared!—This town used to give 75 Democratic majority, and is now sure for Fremont, Free Speech and free exercise of those principles which lie at the foundation of our National Republican Institutions. A. B. C.

Muskego, Aug. 18th.

THE NEWSPAPERS OF MAINE.—The State of Maine thus classifies the press of that State:

Fremont	22
Buchanan	13
Fillmore	1
Independent	17

Of the "independent" papers four are religious journals, and all but four of the remaining thirteen are decidedly favorable to the election of Fremont, but are not political journals. The significant fact is added that of the 13 Buchanan papers, eight are directly or indirectly controlled by U. S. office-holders." The summing up of the Maine press shows: Fremont 35, Buchanan 15, Fillmore 2, neutral 1.

RUN ON BANKS.—A run has commenced on the Erie City Bank and Warren Co. Bank, Pennsylvania; Bank of Newcastle, Pa., and Cumberland Savings Bank, Md. Doubts are expressed of their solvency. On the other hand, the Buffalo Commercial of Friday says:

☞ There is a report in this city that the Erie City Bank, Warren Co. Bank, and the Bank of New Castle, have failed. We are informed by a person who knows, that it is untrue, and that there is no foundation for the report.

NEW HOTEL AT PRAIRIE DU CHIEN.—Col. PARKER, late of the M. & M. R. R. Company, has opened a new hotel, the GRANITE HOUSE, at Lower Prairie du Chien. The Courier thus speaks of the house and the landlord:

The Colonel intends to keep one of the best houses on the Prairie. Being situated at the present terminus of the M. & M. R. R., and near the McGregor Ferry, he cannot fail having his house filled with guests from both steamboats and cars. The Colonel will never fail to have a full larder, and will give all attention to the comfort of those who favor his house. May his shadow never be less!

JOHN C. FREMONT.—A splendid Locomotive, bearing the name of the Republican candidate for President, came Wednesday on the Boston Railroad, from Taunton, Mass., en route for the West. It has five feet drivers and a very powerful engine.—Albany Eve. Journal.

THE BALLOON ASCENSION.—Notwithstanding the rainy and foggy weather yesterday, Professor POSEY, rather than disappoint the public, decided to make his Balloon Ascension. An immense crowd gathered outside of the enclosure, in which the Balloon was inflated, while a few hundreds bought tickets and went inside. Mrs. REIS was present and ready to go up, but owing to the state of the weather the Professor advised her to defer her journey till next week, when he will try again. About 20 minutes before 5, all things being ready, the Professor gave the signal, the fasts were cast loose, and the Balloon rose swiftly and gracefully above the house tops moving off south westward before the light like breeze. The Professor waved his flags and the crowd responded with hats, hands and voices. In less than three minutes, however, the Balloon was completely lost to sight in the fog, and no doubt the Profes or took but a short flight. He will make another ascension in a few days, when we hope to see a larger proportion of the spectators inside the enclosure.

P. S. Professor POSEY returned to town, last evening, all right, and gives the following items. Immediately after starting, finding thick weather above, he opened the valve of the balloon, to let the gas escape and check the ascent. In three or four minutes he lost sight of land and passed into a perfect sea of clouds, nothing else being visible in any direction. Occasionally he could hear the whistle of a locomotive under him, and this was his only clue to a guess as to his whereabouts. He continued rising until he had attained an altitude of about a mile and a half; the temperature being quite cold and the earth still invisible. After rising up some twenty minutes he commenced descending quite rapidly, keeping a sharp look out for land. So dense, however, were the clouds that he saw no land till he had descended within a few hundred feet of the surface, when it opened upon him with startling suddenness. The Professor, however, immediately threw his anchor overboard, which caught in a stump and soon brought the balloon to. A number of men came running to his assistance, Robert WEAVER being the first, and by their friendly aid the balloon was made all snug; and the Professor started for Milwaukee. The spot where he landed was in Clark's addition, almost three miles from the starting point. The Professor says that this, his thirty-fifth ascension, was the most remarkable one he has yet made, since he was completely at sea in the clouds, and saw nothing, from three minutes after he started till within a hundred yards of his landing. He appeared to have enjoyed the novelty very much.

Professor POSEY will make another Balloon ascension in the course of a few days and, if the weather be fair, will be accompanied by Mrs. REIS. Due notice will be given of the time and place of starting.

A Certificate of Character.

Senator BROWN, of Mississippi, was Chairman of the Committee, appointed by the Cincinnati Convention to wait upon Mr. BUCHANAN and apprize him of his nomination. Mr. BROWN, having discharged his duty, reports progress to the People of Mississippi, in the following letter. We invite special attention to Mr. BUCHANAN'S volunteer pledge to "battle the Slavery question" upon the principles of the Kansas Nebraska bill and to annex Cuba to the Union:

WASHINGTON CITY, June 18, 1856.

MY DEAR SIR: I congratulate you on the nomination of your favorite candidate for the Presidency.

If the nomination of Mr. Buchanan was acceptable to me at first, it is still more so now, since I have seen him and heard him speak. The Committee, of which I was one, waited on him at his residence to give him formal and official notice of his nomination, and in the name of the National Democracy to request his acceptance of it. We found him open, frank, and wholly undisguised in the expression of his sentiments. Mr. Buchanan said, in the presence of all who had assembled—and they were from the North and the South, be East and the West—that he stood upon the Cincinnati platform and endorsed every part of it. He was explicit in his remarks on the Slavery features, saying that the Slavery issue was the absorbing element in the canvass. He recognized to its fullest extent the overshadowing importance of that issue, and if elected, he would make it the great aim of his Administration to settle the question upon such terms as should give peace and safety to the Union, and security to the South. He spoke in terms of decided commendation of the Kansas bill, and as pointedly expressed the unworthy efforts of sectional agitation to get up a national conflagration on that question. After the passage of the Compromise measure of 1850 the Kansas bill was, he said, mere savy to harmonize our legislation in reference to the Territories, and he expressed his surprise that there should appear anywhere an organized opposition to the Kansas bill, after the general acquiescence with which the whole country had expressed in the measures of 1850.

After thus speaking of Kansas and the Slavery issues, Mr. Buchanan passed to our foreign policy. He expressed in general terms of the Cincinnati resolutions on this subject. But said that while enforcing our own policy, we must at all times scrupulously regard the just rights and proper policy of other nations. He was not opposed to territorial extension. All our acquisitions were fairly and honorably made. Our necessities might require us to make other acquisitions. I regarded the acquisition of Cuba as very desirable now, and likely to become a national necessity. Whenever we could obtain the Island on fair, honorable terms, he was for taking it. But, he added, it will be a terrible necessity that won't induce me to sanction any movement that would bring reproach upon us, or tarnish the honor and glory of our beloved country.

After he formal interview was over, Mr. Buchanan did playfully, but in the presence of the audience, "if I can be instrumental in settling the Slavery question upon the terms I have named, and then add Cuba to the Union, I shall, if President, be willing to give up the ghost and let Breckenridge take the Government." Could there be a more noble ambition? You may well be proud of your early choice of a candidate, and congratulate yourself that no adverse influences ever moved you an inch from your straight purpose of giving the great Pennsylvanian steady, earnest and cordial support. In my judgment he is as worthy of Southern confidence as of Southern votes as Mr. Calhoun ever was; and in saying this I do not mean to intimate that Mr Buchanan has any sectional prejudices in our favor. I only mean to say that he has none against us, and that we may rely with absolute certainty on receiving full justice, according to the Constitution, at his hands.

Knowing your long, laborious and faithful adherence to the fortunes of Mr. Buchanan, I have thought it proper to address you this letter, to give you assurance that you had not mistaken your man, nor failed in performance of a sacred and filial duty to the South. In doing so I violate no confidence.

Very truly, your friend,
A. G. BROWN.

To the Hon. S. R. Adams.

Republican Rally at Beloit.

The Committee of the Beloit Fremont Club, appointed to prepare for the Mass Convention to be held in this city on the 3d of September next, desire that the officers of the Fremont Clubs in the several counties invited, in order to secure a universal response to the invitation given, should consult with the friends of Freedom in their vicinity, and make all necessary arrangements for a full and general attendance from their respective towns. They also desire the officers or some prominent Republican where there is no organization to communicate to them as early as possible the probable number of the delegation from each town, and the manner of entrance into the city, that they may prepare the proper escort.

We desire to welcome the people, both men and women, en masse, with banners and badges representing the principles of Freedom; and with heart aroused to prompt and efficient action, again crush the corrupt aggressions of the slave power. Let them come by hundreds and thousands!

F. P. KING, Pres't.

JAS. W. STRONG, Cor. Sec'y.

☞ The wild woman humbug has been thoroughly exposed at Cincinnati. Mr. Northcot, her exhibitor and tamer, is one Jo. Williams, of Shreveport, La., and the wild woman is Ann Eliza Paul, well known as his mistress at that place. The imposition was skillfully conducted by the woman, and learned and scientific men were handsomely sold—not to say editors.

KANSAS CONTRIBUTION.—The Kansas National Committee, at Chicago, have recently received a check for $3,000 for the aid of Kansas, from Gerrit Smith, and have been authorized to draw on the N. Y. Tribune for $1,000 for the same object.

Common Council Proceedings Last Night.

Alderman Jung presented the petition of several property-holders upon Milwaukee street, remonstrating against the change of grade in said street, stating that the passage of the ordinance was obtained by fraud, and asking its repeal.

Alderman Hadley, in the chair, as one of the parties referred to in the petition, explained some matters in the petition pronouncing them as "unqualifiedly false."

After several motions, (one of which from Alderman Taylor, who alluded to the language in the petition as not respectful to the Common Council,) had been made, the petition was referred to a committee of one from each ward, together with the commissioners of survey, with instructions to report at next meeting.

A remonstrance against the repeal of the ordinance was referred to the same committee.

Communication from Peter Martineau, Esq., asking for an exchange of certain real estate.

Ald. Haertell reported an ordinance for a sinking fund—read once and published.

Committee reported in favor of the remonstrants against running the Beloit R. R. through Mineral Street.

A memorial to State Board of Equalization asking them to increase the valuation four-fifths was tabled.

Ordinance fixing grades of 11th and 12th sts. —read once. Do. for an issue of $26,000 bonds for repairing school houses; passed. Do. to repeal the ordinance creating the Sack Co.; read once.

The Chief of Police reported the number of arrests in July at 200.

An ordinance was passed relating to streets, alleys and sidewalks.

One section of this ordinance provides that "no person shall drive faster than a walk across any cross-walk in this city."

A spirited discussion occurred on this section, which was finally passed by but one majority, the President predicting as he voted against the section, the absolute necessity of its repeal in a week from its passage.

Ordinance passed to restrain cattle, &c., from running at large.

Ordinance "to prevent nuisances and disorderly practices" passed.

In this ordinance the fine was reduced to "not less than $1 and not more than $5 for driving faster than a walk upon any bridge in the city."

An ordinance relating to the Fire Limits, &c., was read and laid over, under the rules.

A resolution, to print 500 hand bills in German and English containing a synopsis of the ordinance relating to the impounding of cattle, restraining dogs, &c., and that the same be posted up in the most conspicuous parts of the city, was passed.

Accounts &c. passed and Council adjourned.

DIED,

At Burlington, Wis., August 3d, Dea. WM. LEWIS, 36 years of age.

He was held in great respect and affection by a large circle of friends, and his loss will be deeply felt by the whole neighborhood. He left a wife and child to mourn his departure.

"WESTERN BORDER LIFE."—We are indebted to J A Hall & Co for a copy of this graphic story of "what Fanny Hunter saw and heard in Kansas and Missouri." It is a tale of real life and recent incidents on the Missouri Border, and gives an animated picture of society there and of the desperate struggles of Slavery to gain a foot hold in Kansas

HISTORY OF IMMIGRATION.—This is a very interesting and reliable compilation, from official sources, of all the data illustrating the history of immigration to the United States, from 1819 to 1856 together with an appendix containing the Naturalization and Passenger Laws, and extracts from the laws of the several States, relative to Immigrants For sale by ARCHIBALD WILSON, 175 East Water Street

BOSWORTH'S LIFE OF FREMONT.—Messrs J A Hall & Co have another instalment of it is admirable narrative—Buy a copy, read it, and pass it to your neighbor It is not only a most interesting story, but the best of all electioneering documents for FREMONT and FARMER If every voter in this State could read t is book, there would not be a corporat's guard of Buchaneers left in Wisconsin

Political Discussion.

The Buchanan and Fremont Clubs (Germans) are to hold debates during the presidential Campaign, in Market Hall and the Mansion House, Milwaukee, Sunday afternoons and Tuesday evenings Number of speakers not specified The first debate is to come off at the Hall of the Second Ward Democratic Club, at the Mans on House, on Tuesday evening, the 26th inst.—Mr John Bolesha per s Sti e

☞ We have been requested to call attention to the fact that the lower end of Clybourn and Row er s reets, on the river, are so often noted with lumber that in case of fire it would be impossible to get the engines to the water This should be looked to at once, for a fire would do immense damage there, unless promptly checked

'HANG OUT YOUR BANNERS."—A very handsome Fremont flag was displayed from the Phoenix Building yesterday It was manufactured by Douglass & King for the boys of the Wisconsin, Americain and Telegraph Offices, which are within that block The lettering was gratuitously done by Lane The motto reads

JOHN C FREMONT,
"The Great West must have a President

IMPORTANT AND TRUE.

I have a son 16 years of age who has been deaf and dumb from the age of two years, the effect of scarlet fever Hearing of Dr McLeod, I took my son to him, and in three weeks under his hands he began to give signs of hearing, and at the expiration of 7 weeks he could hear well, and is now rapidly learning to speak I make this statement unsolicited, and for the good of an afflicted community. ALEX O MORTON.
St Paul, Feb, 1856.

I have been suffering with deafness, and many of the ills accompanying deafness, from my infancy, which is about twenty five years, my deafness became so distressing that I could rest neither day nor night, and looked for relief only in the grave At length I was permitted to visit Dr McLeod, of the Ear Infirmary of the city Trembling between hope and fear, I submitted my case to this gentleman.—Beyond my most sanguine expectations after a short course of treatment by Dr McLeod, I am in the enjoyment of perfect hearing, and my head is free from all those disagreeable sensations which formerly made life a burden Any person wishing to see me, can find me at my residence, No. 140 Fifth Street.
MRS. EMMA CHANDLER
Chatsworth, O., Jan. 1855

I have been deaf in both my ears for many years, which affliction so affected my mind, that life itself, at times, became a burden, and almost unendurable to me. I am now one of the happiest men living I have been restored to perfect hearing by Dr. McLeod, Ear Infirmary, corner Fourth and Olive streets. In his first examination of my ears, he stated that in six operations he would give me perfect hearing; and true to his word, at the sixth operation, I heard, and so gradually and powerfully did the sound come to my ears, that I was obliged to partially stop them with cotton till I could get used to it. Those wishing to see me can call at the office of Turbitt, Smith & Co., corner Fourth and Olive sts.

The Wisconsin River is navigable for the largest class Water Power of any river in the United States The manufacturing of number of which over one half millions of feet are annually manufactured on the Wisconsin River will be in operation here for the greatest amount of this water power The Wisconsin River is found in pine forests which are more extensive than those any other river in the West

The site of Kilbourn City is magnificent being a plain rising from a bluff a elevation of 50 feet at the river bank to an elevation of one 200 to 250 feet, where it meets the table land for miles east of the river This when in Oak Openings, and the land lays beautifully

The best, purest and softest water can be had by digging, or boring Kilbourn City well and has already commenced to put that same well into some 35 or 40 buildings have been enclosed at a cost of one to three thousand dollars each, and great numbers of others are in process of construction

In fact, it would require two columns of one of our daily papers to give an adequate account of the advantages of Kilbourn City The world is ready to act and it is this There has been no city laid out in many years which has offered so many inducements and it is as great and well capitalists can possibly be money as certainly as in Kilbourn City

To those who are emigrating to this country here is a great opportunity. Go and see it, and this will be soon as it Will be required hours and 10 minutes on long time, (particularly to those who intend to build)

Kilbourn City is in Columbia Co., State of Wisconsin Ten lots are now for sale to Mechanics only Before you will find convenience to Kilbourn City Map and plat of city will be ready in a few days, and can be obtained by calling at my office

THE UNDERSIGNED have purchased an interest in the Prairie du Chien, (lower town) offers on reasonable terms two hundred (200) lots, situated near the depot grounds of the M. & M. R. R. I am ready to show the improvements that cannot be surpassed in the State, as to price, terms and location, to all wishing to purchase a site for business or a desirable residence.

and situated on the banks of the Mississippi river, tributary to which is the whole State of Iowa and Minnesota territory, it must be the second city of Wisconsin.

It is unnecessary to make any assurance, for it is the evident fact that it must be the second city of Wisconsin.

To any person wishing to make investments, I would say that I have the agency of a large sporting of Steamboats owned by the American transportation Company, also lots owned by the Ac. ican transportation Company, in addition to my own, and hereby offer my services to any who desire to make an investment that will prove profitable.

To my old friends, Railroad Conductors and all others, I will say —call and see me, and you will be sure to be rewarded.

Valuable Stone Quarry for Sale.

THE undersigned are desirous of disposing of their valuable Stone Quarry, containing twenty or twenty-five acres of land, situated about one and a half miles from the city of Milwaukee, on the Milwaukee & Watertown Plank Road and the Milwaukee & Mississippi R. R. The Stone Quarry contains an amount of stone sufficient to supply the city of Milwaukee with foundations and stone for cutting, in courses from two and a half inches to twenty-four inches, for centuries to come.

It is considered by competent judges to be the best Quarry in the State of Wisconsin.

We have tested some of our stone, and have become satisfied that they will make the best quality of Water Lime.

We also have a valuable Water Power adjoining the Stone Quarry, on the Menomonee River, with one of the best stone dams in the State, which we will sell with the Stone Quarry, if desired.

For capitalists and men wishing to engage in active business, this is a rare chance for speculation.

For price and terms, enquire on the premises of the proprietors, CHASE & HOLSTON.

PERFECT PROTECTION FROM THE ELEMENTS.

WEST'S
Patent Galvanic Cement for Roofing.

TRY ATTENTION of Architects, Builders, and the public generally is invited to this roofing—as being far superior to other compositions in use for like purposes. In fact, we think it superior to any other Roofing, for it has more essential qualities combined required for roofing, than any other material used, viz: Imperial resistance to water, incombustibility, durability and cheapness. It is Fire and Water proof, and can be applied to flat or steep roofs. In its texture and appearance it resembles slate—will not soften and run in the warmest weather, nor become hard and crack in the coldest—Therefore it forms a good walk on piazza's flat roofs, cornices, &c. Its fire proof qualities particularly adapts it to Railroad buildings, engine shops, &c. It is especially adapted to repairing old roofs, seaming second hand iron, sky lights and chimneys, and for lining save troughs, &c.

This roofing is being extensively used in the Eastern States on the most expensive buildings. Testimonials may be seen from the owners of buildings, Mechanics and Architects and also specimens by calling at the office.

The subscribers own the right for the State of Wisconsin, and will sell territory by counties or towns, on favorable terms.

Milwaukee, April 15, 1856 apr16dly

TO BRIDGE BUILDERS.

THE LaCrosse & Milwaukee Railroad Co invite proposals, with plans and specifications, until Wednesday noon, Oct. 15th next, for building a bridge over the Wisconsin river, on the line of their road. The road is to terminate on a north westerly direction across the State, from Milwaukee, on Lake Michigan, to La Crosse on the Mississippi River, crossing the Wisconsin River at Kilbourn City, in Columbia County. The river, at this point, runs in a rocky bed, the banks of which are vertical rock bluffs to the height of 80 feet above the water, at which point they are at the grade of the line of the road, and about 900 feet apart. The water is about 20 feet deep, having in the middle of the stream, a few feet of sand overlaying the rock bottom. It is proposed to erect a two plan about 80 feet from either bank, at which the water is about 8 feet deep at low water, with a clean rock bottom, giving a span in the middle of 960 feet, and two short spans at the ends, resting upon the natural rock as at abutments. It is desirable so to construct the bridge as to give a wagon way below the R. R. track, passing the latter over the higher section of the bridge. The Company reserve the right to award the contract to any parties, on any plan they may offer, and to reject any and all plans that may be furnished, but in case of their giving the contract to any builder on any plan furnished by any other person, they will pay to the person furnishing such plan the sum of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, in full consideration of the plans and specifications so adopted.
